SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. I will make a few announcements. First of all, I would like to announce that the Executive Board will be meeting and hearing the bills in Room 2102. Is that correct, Senator Hall? In 2102 we'll be hearing the bills on the phone records, right upon adjournment. Tomorrow we will be taking up the rules change on smoking on the floor of the Legislature, so I would encourage people to be here on time, because that will take 30 votes to do that. Also, we have a number of bills on Final Reading. And every...and all of the first bills on Final Reading do have the E clause, so we will need people here, so please get here on time. And if you are watching your worksheet and you see that some of the Final Reading bills are not coming up in the exact order that they appear on your worksheet, that's because some of those bills are not printed yet. And as those bills are printed...we are dealing with the Final Reading bills that have been printed so far. Senator Jones, would you like to adjourn us until tomorrow morning at 9:00 a.m.

SENATOR JONES: (Microphone not activated immediately.)
...adjourn until tomorrow morning at 9:00 a.m.
